COL. STEWART WINS AS PREDICTED.

A List of the Newly Elected Officers of the Three Different Societies.

The session of the G. A. R. Encampment at Erie has closed. Colonel Stewart was elected Commander. A report in favor of the continuance of the Orphans' schools under the charge of a commission was adopted. The Women's Relief Corps want the present system abolished. They took action looking to the establishment of a State Home under their direction. The ladies of the Grand Army refused to unite with PERCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 ERIE, February 13 .- The Twenty-third annual Encampment of the Grand Army has closed its session, and the veterans are breaking ranks to-night. The Women's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic are still in session but will close to-morrow. The grand finale with the Grand Army was the reception tendered to-night by citizens at the Reed House, in which fully 2,000 ladies and gentlemen participated.

The election to-day culminated as your correspondent predicted it would, and Colonel Thomas J. Stewart, the present Assistant Adjutant General, was elected Department Commander over General D. B. McCreary, by a vote of 503 to 212. The defeated candidate acquiesced gracefully. The remainder of the balloting resulted as follows: Senior Vice, John V. Miller, of Lewisburg; Junior Vice, William T. Gorell, Reading; Medical Director, Dr. Reed, Lancaster; Council of Administration, William Emsley, 51, B. L. Meyers, 46, E. G. Sellers, 8, J. F. Hunter, 3, L. W. Shengel, 94.

Bover, Harrisburg; J. W. Curry, Altoona, and Thad L. Vanderslice, Philadelphia;

The report of the committee in favor of holding the next encampment at Shamokin was adopted, but when it became understood later that the place could only accommodate 500 there was a general remonstrance.

The soldiers' orphan school question was disposed of to-day, to the surprise of every one, without debate. The committee to whom the report had been referred reported back to the department a scheme for handling the matter, which was that schools be continued without limit, but no new applications be accepted, although it is said there are hundreds of them on file.

The commander was asked to appoint a committee of five to take charge of the orphans' school question. The Legislature will be asked to put the whole affair in the hands of a commission. George Wright and his henchmen from Mercer saved their bacon by the hardest kind of work, although member of the Grand Army looks with disgust upon the last scandal at Me-

Resolutions were adopted indorsing the Legislative bill to prevent the sale of liquor on Decoration Day; commending Major Tyron's management of the Soldiers' Home; to appoint a committee to harmonize the relations between the two ladies' organizations which are associated but not connected with the Grand Army; recommending that pension examining boards be made up of ex-soldiers, and thanking the posts and peo ple of Erie for their hospitality.

The Ladies of the Grand Army, or that organization which accepts only the immediate relatives of the soldiers, elected officers to-day as follows: President, Mrs. Charles Sheriffs, Pittsburg; Senior Vice, Mrs. Caroline Atkinson, Erie; Junior Vice, Mrs. M. Carey, Millville; Treasurer, Mrs. Rachael Doran, Pittsburg; Chaplain, Mrs. Adelia Murray, Pittsburg; Delegate-at-Large, Mrs. C. G. Bruner, Altoona; Council of Administration, Mrs. Julia M. Johnson, Altoona; Mrs. Nellie Eupert, Allentown, and Mrs. Margaret Reed, Pittsburg.

NO UNION IN THEIRS.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will not accept any suggestion from the department as to merging into a union with the Woman's Relief Corps. They are entirely satisfied with their prosperity and growth and will not widen their condition of admission so as to admit of a union with the Woman's Relief Corps, which will accept any loyal lady as

The Women's Relief Corps of the Grand Army concluded its labors by installing its officers to-night as follows: President, Mrs. Helen M. Morrison, Smethport; Senior Vice, Mrs. Emma S. Lindsley, Warren; Junior Vice, Mrs. James Liley, Erie; Treasurer, Mrs. Evans, Lock Haven; Chaplain, Mrs. Susan E. Pussey, Titusville; Secretary, Mrs. J. K. Wallace, Bradford; Councillor in the Department, Mrs. Jennie Reavely, Erie.

The Committee on the Widows reported a scheme for dividing the State up into 15 sections, and Mrs. Wittenmyer was appointed at the head of a Committee of Fifteen to carry out the plans which were adopted. Fairs will be held in all of the districts, and these will lead up to a State fair for the benefit of the home. It is the intention to start at first with a rented building.

A BROAD INSTITUTION. The institution will accept indigent soldiers and their wives, and also widows and orphans. The relief corps say they will go ahead with the scheme regardless of the action of the Grand Army department, but have asked their co-operation as a matter of A resolution was passed on the subject of soldiers orphans' schools which is very ex-pressive, and which is easily understood when prefaced by the corps' action upon their own proposed home. It is as follows: In view of the condition of the soldiers or phans schools and lack of confidence in the management. It favor the discontinuance as soon as possible, but recommend the continued aid and the supervision of the State in behalf of these children.

It comes from good authority that the Women's Relie? Corps will send a committee to Harrisburg to work for an appropria-tion for the Widows and Orphans' Home. The plan is to have a school in connection with the home. Mrs. Wittenmeyer is be-

HEAVY SUIT IN EJECTMENT.

Some $400,000 Worth of Central Alleghen Property Involved-An Interesting Trial In Court Expected. A precipe in ejectment, together with an abstract of title, was filed yesterday by J.

Wilson and 21 others. The suit when it comes to trial will arouse considerable interest, not only on account of the number of people involved, but on ecount of the amount of money and property at stake, some $400,000, the latter being located right in the heart of Allegheny City. This property, lies about the Diamond, near the postoffice, fronting on Ohio street and East and South Diamend and Whig alley. William Wilson is the owner, and the other defendants Wilson is the owner, and the other defendants are merely so as tenants, as the property is covered with dwellings and shops.

The case presents a queer history, involving the will of Miss Jane Campbell, who died some years ago, leaving her property to the present owner, and the plaintiffs plead to recover as heirs at law, and will bring up the old suit in which an effort was made to have the lady declared mentally incapable.

Is one of the most prevalent of diseases. Few persons have perfect digestion. One of Ayer's Pills, taken after dinner, or a dose at night before retiring, never fails to give relief in the worst cases, and wonderfully assists the process of nutrition. THE largest public sale of manufactured lumber that ever occurred in the State took place yesterday at Williamsport, and was at-tended by leading dealers from Philadelphia, tended by leading dealers from Philadelphia, Baltimore and other castern cities. Over 16,000,000 feet of lumber was disposed of as it stood on the yard of the Williamsport Lumber Company. The average prices obtained were from 50 cents to $1 above the rates of 1888, and the prominent dealers interested declare that this will fix the basis of prices for the year and probably cause an advance all along the line. The sum total of the sale will foot up from $175,000 to $200,000. The greater portion of the stock was secured by Philadelphia dealers.
